

12/29/2022

Industry Bulletin: 22-07

Subject: New medical cannabis administrative rules effective on 12/27/2022

This industry bulletin provides notification that on December 27, 2022, the Utah Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) made several administrative rules effective and other rules were repealed. The rules impact the medical cannabis industry.

New administrative rules made effective on December 27, 2022:

- R383-1 Definitions
- R383-2 Electronic Verification System and Inventory Control System
- R383-3 Medical Cannabis Cards
- R383-4 Qualified Medical Providers
- R383-5 Dosing Guidelines
- R383-6 Pharmacy Medical Providers
- R383-7 Medical Cannabis Pharmacy
- R383-10 State Central Patient Portal
- R383-11 Agreement with a Tribe
- R383-12 Administrative Hearing Procedures
- R383-13 Compassionate Use Board
- R383-14 Administrative Hearing Procedures

Administrative rules repealed on December 27, 2022:

- R380-400 Utah Medical Cannabis Act Rule
- R380-401 Electronic Verification System and Inventory Control System
- R380-402 Medical Cannabis Cards
- R380-403 Qualified Medical Providers
- R380-404 Dosing Parameters
- R380-405 Pharmacy Medical Providers

R380-406 Medical Cannabis Pharmacy
R380-409 State Central Patient Portal
R380-410 Agreement with a Tribe
R380-411 Administrative Hearing Procedures
R380-412 Compassionate Use Board
R380-413 Administrative Penalties

Administrative rules scheduled to be made effective on March 1, 2023:

R383-8 Medical Cannabis Pharmacy Agent
R383-9 Home Delivery and Courier

Administrative rules scheduled to be repealed on March 1, 2023:

R380-407 Medical Cannabis Pharmacy Agent
R380-408 Home Delivery and Courier

Official copies of rules made effective on December 27, 2022 may be accessed at <https://medicalcannabis.utah.gov/resources/utah-medical-cannabis-law/>.

The DHHS encourages the medical cannabis industry and other stakeholders to review and become familiar with the rules cited in this bulletin. The DHHS cannot legally interpret laws for external parties but individuals may contact the DHHS Center for Medical Cannabis compliance program at cannabiscompliance@utah.gov or (801) 538-6504 with general questions about the rules.